1 WHEREAS on May 30, 2007, Plaintiffs Binyam Mohamed, Abou Elkassim Britel, and 2 Ahmed Agiza (“the Initial Plaintiffs”) filed the Complaint in this action;

3 WHEREAS, on June 25, 2007, counsel for the Initial Plaintiffs informed counsel for 4 Defendant that the Initial Plaintiffs intended to amend the Complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P.
5 15(a) and to file and serve an amended complaint on or before July 25, 2007;

6 WHEREAS, in light of the forthcoming amended complaint, the parties filed a stipulation 7 pursuant to Local Rule 6-1(a) to extend the time within which Defendant shall respond to the 8 Complaint until August 13, 2007—a date that would correspond to the normal due date under the 9 rules for responding to an amended complaint that was filed on July 25, 2007;

10 WHEREAS, as part of the June 26, 2007 stipulation, the parties reserved the right to 11 present a further stipulation to the Court, for its approval under Local R. 6-1(b), more fully 12 establishing the schedule for a possible motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 in response to the 13 forthcoming amended complaint, including a further extension of the due date for responding to 14 the forthcoming amended complaint;

15 WHEREAS, after counsel for the Initial Plaintiffs informed counsel for Defendant that the 16 Initial Plaintiffs required additional time until August 1, 2007 to complete their amendment of the 17 Complaint, an Amended Complaint was filed on August 1, 2007;

18 WHEREAS the Amended Complaint includes claims by two new plaintiffs, Mohamed
19 Farag Ahmad Bashmilah and Bisher al-Rawi (together with the Initial Plaintiffs, collectively 20 referred to as “Plaintiffs”);

21 WHEREAS, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a), (e), Defendant’s
22 response to the Amended Complaint is presently due on Monday, August 20, 2007;

23 WHEREAS, the parties expect that, if Defendant responds to the Amended Complaint by 24 filing a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12, such a motion would likely raise complex legal issues 25 that would require significant substantive briefing addressing, inter alia, the following: whether 26 the nature of Plaintiffs’ claims (which are based on alleged U.S. intelligence activities overseas)
27 renders this case nonjusticiable; whether Plaintiffs have alleged a norm of international law that is 28 actionable under the Alien Tort Statute, 28 U.S.C. § 1350 (“ATS”), in light of the standards

1 established by the Supreme Court in Sosa v. Alvarez-Machain, 542 U.S. 692 (2004); and whether 2 a corporate entity such as Defendant can be held liable under the ATS for alleged violations of 3 international law purportedly committed by agents of, inter alia, the United States, Sweden,
4 Morocco, and Egypt;

5 WHEREAS, counsel for the parties expect that they would require additional time beyond
6 that provided by the Local Rules to fully and effectively brief such a motion and to prepare papers
7 that will best assist the Court in deciding the complex legal issues presented;

8 WHEREAS, the Commentary to Local R. 7-2 states that, “[f]or complex motions, parties 9 are encouraged to stipulate to or seek a Court order establishing a longer notice period with 10 correspondingly longer periods for response or reply”;

11 WHEREAS, the parties respectfully submit that the proposed schedule set forth below
12 will enable them to fully and fairly brief a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12;

13 WHEREAS, in light of the complexity of the threshold legal issues raised by the 14 Amended Complaint in this case, the parties agree that the Rule 26(f) conference and the formal 15 “Initial Case Management Conference” under Local Rule 16-10 (currently set for September 24, 16 2007 at 10:00 A.M.) should be deferred until after the Court has issued a final ruling on a motion
17 under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12;

18 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs nonetheless request that the Court set a status conference at the 19 same date and time (September 24, 2007 at 10:00 A.M.) to address any scheduling or other such 20 issues that may be raised by Defendant’s response to the Amended Complaint (which, under the 21 schedule set forth below, would then already have been filed on September 19, 2007);

22 WHEREAS Defendant has no objection to Plaintiffs’ request for a status conference, and 23 the parties agree to file with the Court a Joint Status Conference Statement on or before 24 September 19, 2007 identifying any scheduling or other such issues that may then require the 25 Court’s attention; and

26 WHEREAS, the parties have discussed the options for Alternative Dispute Resolution 27 (“ADR”) set forth in this Court’s ADR Local Rules, and the parties agree that this case is not 28 suited for court-sponsored Alternative Dispute Resolution process at this time and that, pending

1 further order of the Court, the provisions of Local Rule 16-8 and ADR Local Rule 3 should not 2 apply to this case;

3 NOW THEREFORE, Plaintiffs and Defendant, through their undersigned counsel, hereby 4 stipulate as follows:

5 1. Defendant shall file its response to the Amended Complaint on or before 6 September 19, 2007.

7 2. Defendant may respond to the Amended Complaint with an answer or by filing a 8 motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12. If Defendant responds with a motion, Plaintiffs shall file an 9 opposition to such a motion on or before October 24, 2007; Defendant shall file a reply in support 10 of such a motion on or before November 21, 2007; and the hearing on the motion shall be 11 December 10, 2007, at 9:00 a.m., or at such date and time thereafter as is convenient for the 12 Court.

13 4. The Initial Case Management Conference and Joint Case Management Statement 14 provided for by Local R. 16-9 and 16-10, all disclosures pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a), and the 15 Rule 26(f) conference shall be deferred until the Court has issued a final ruling upon any motion
16 under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12. Pending further order of the Court, the provisions of Local Rule 16-8 17 and ADR Local Rule 3 shall not apply to this case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

The Court adopts the parties' Stipulation except the Court finds that an interim Case Management Conference is unnecessary in light of the Defendants' putative Motion to Dismiss. The Court will set a conference date in its order regarding Defendants' Motion to Dismiss.

Dated: August 13, 2007
